“ I would like to send condolences to all of Mary's loved ones. My heart and prayers are with each and every one of you. Mary was a special kind of lady who was proud of her family and faith, who wore it with pride to show the whole world!

I'll never forget; the first time I met her, the night Mike and I drove her home from the Chilton House, times at the Chilton House, the boat ride, at Kim's apartment in WV, at Mary's house in Culloden, at Mary's house in VA, all the times at Kim's house in VA, all the dinners we met out to eat, All the Halloweens at her house in VA, all the Christmasas at Kim's house in VA and other holidays, spending the night with Kim at her house in VA and the special times I popped in for a surprise visit at her house in VA.

Each and every time I spent with her she was always the same person. This is a very special quality that is truly genuine.

Yep, Mary was a GENUINE PERSON!!❤️

And I loved her very much.
