“ Omg I would be here all day if I shared the wonderful memories I had with this lady. But two of my favorite memories was I can remember when the electric would go out and she would get the flash lights out and play I spy with me and my brother to take our minds off of being in the dark and my second best memory is when the day I told her I was pregnant at a very young age and she said she was going to beat me from head to toe lol and that baby ended up being the light of her life. Love you mom more than you know your baby girl Carisa Ann ❤️❤️
