“ I barely knew your loved one.....even though a neighbor across the street. Our lives seem so much busier than they used to be. I would see a van pick her up in the mornings sometimes and in talking with her caregiver outside one day, was told she was doing kidney dialysis. My brother is also on dialysis. Anyway, in visiting my brother just last week at Valley Center, we were "wheeling" down the hallway and I saw a room name plate saying Mary Bowers. I peeked in the room and a lady said "Hi", but thinking that her name was Lonita, and thinking she didn't look like my neighbor, I just waved and went on so as not to miss our dinner in the Dining Room. I can't be sure, but now think maybe she recognized me and I regret not stopping in for a visit.

Her caregiver had told me also what a nice lady she was. May God Bless all of you during this difficult time.
