“ Your mom was such an inspiration to me. Enjoyed working with her at the elections, Red Cross and Red Hats society also with the senior citizens of Winfield. I will truly miss her and her kind words of wisdom. May God bless and keep you safe.

“ Ecclesiastes chapter 12 describes life from youth until we return to our Heavenly Father, the Preacher begins verse 1, "Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth", continues verse 5 as the body ages, "Also they are afraid of height, and terrors in the way; When the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper is a burden, and desire fails, for the mortal goes to our Eternal Home, and mourners go about the street. Remember your Creator before the silver cord is broken, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher shattered at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the well. Then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to Elohim who gave it". The Apostle Paul expresses the desire of God's children in 2 Corinthians 5:1-8; "For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our dwelling which is from heaven, if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. For we walk by faith, not by sight. We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Mrs. Sheets has lived and conducted her life in accordance with these Scriptures and is now celebrating her victory. I believe helping prepare that great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“ Mary Louise Sheets,

I remember laughing and talking and loving each other around her kitchen table as well as my mother's kitchen table (Louise's younger sister, Eva Mae Williams). Our lives are poorer now without her, but our memories will always be rich with those times from the past as she kept them alive for us, and the new good memories she was always helping us to create.

She talked of going to heaven to be with her sisters and the rest of her family, especially in the past few weeks. She saw some Angels and called out for them to come and get her. God's timing was right, and He wisely gave them the nod on Sunday morning and her final prayer was answered.

Her love was as pure and Godly as any I've ever known, and her Christian testimony was just as pure. She simply loved as many people as God brought into her life, and they were many in her 96 years. Five generations enjoyed her special love and called her blessed.

I am proud to have known this Grand Lady, as my brother Bob calls her. I am a much richer person because she has loved me all of my 70 plus years.

*Rest in Peace, Darlin
See you on the other side
Hug Mom for me until I can hug her myself*

*All my love,
Terry Lee*

“ Aunt Louise, I've loved you ever since I was little. You and Mom were there and laughed with me when I was getting my tonsils out when I was just 6 years old. You were always so kind to me and Scottie. I never heard you say a bad word about anyone and no one was more fun to talk to than you! Going to vote will never be as much fun when I can't hug you. You never failed to have a cookie for me and loads of encouragement. You are so greatly missed by by your nephew, Ron Williams.

Thank you Pogo and Sheila and all those who helped her and took such great care of her! Love you Aunt Louise!

*Aunt Louise accepted me into her family and I loved her dearly from day one! I NEVER heard her say a bad word about or to anyone. She was one of the sweetest, most saintly women I have EVER known. She knew what she believed in and stood up for it. She put her family first only behind God and was quick to defend both. She was beautiful inside and out and was always such a joy to talk to with a love for life that was a real delight to experience with her. I loved watching her enjoy "Mr Goodbar" candy (or some dessert) before a meal if that's when I showed up with it. I'll ALWAYS remember her and her fondness for Mr Goodbar candy when I see it now. One of the most fond memories I have of her is when Terry and I took her and Eva Mae to the Ohio Amish country. They laughed, talked and giggled something fierce but they truly did enjoy themselves to the fullest. I nicknamed them "The Giggle Sisters" because they couldn't always get their seatbelts hooked before we'd stop again. They would pull them across their body and hold them down against the seat and laugh and talk just like everything was normal. Sure wish I could hear them giggle like that again! My life has been enriched because God allowed our paths to cross. Our loss is now heaven's gain!!
Rest in Peace precious lady now in the presence of God.
I Love you Aunt Louise! Mary Williams*
