“ Ma-maw made the best biscuits. She never made a big deal out of making sure she always had our favorite snacks and always kept an open door. So glad I grew up next door so I could go annoy her at anytime. We nicknamed her house Taylor's Palace. And it was to us. Ma-maw was there to talk or not talk, to feed you, to love you. And of course to set off her million and one clocks. I wish we could turn back time.
