“ My sister and I were grateful to have Matt as a friend and next-door neighbor. He was the perfect tenant, my sister said, and we miss him terribly. Candy, my dog, loved him and has laid down at his doorstep and barked at his apartment, hoping he'll come out. This is so hard for Matt's family and friends. My thoughts are with you all.

“ *My Friend Matt,
Such a short time but great memories I will never forget, GO HERD !!!, College football, Saturday college game day talks 8:30 am sharp , The trips to Santa Anita Race track, Many Opening Day's at Del Mar, The baseball games with the Inova crew and of course the fly ball at Petco Park ESPN highlights. So many laughs I will miss you but I know you are in the heavenly kingdom where there is light, peace and happiness. No pain, No grief, No sighing but Everlasting Life. I offer my deepest sympathy to Matt's family and ask God to grant them consolation and strength.
Sincerely,
Marcus Kauler*
