“ Matthew was a very much loved and cherished from the time we found he was to be an addition to the family. Matt was our second child with more than five years between Becky, our daughter and Matt. He was always very active and never had a dull moment with him as a baby, toddler and then adult. We have so much to be thankful when we think about the life God gave us to enjoy with him. Our heart is broken and will never be the same without him.

Dear Matt,

I love you as only a Mother can love her child. You were and still remain a blessing and I will always have in my heart! My constant and everlasting love.
