

Melvin C. Ray

October 19, 1954 - June 3, 2016

Melvin C. Ray, 61, of Milton, passed away Thursday, June 3, 2016 at home.

Born October 19, 1954 in Elmira NY to the late Melvin and Lanola Ray.

Melvin was a cook for Bob Evans for 40 years. He also served his country in the Army. In his spare time Melvin enjoyed cooking and fishing.

He is survived by his daughters Melody Louise, Joyce Marie, and Tiffany Sue; sisters Robin Lewis of Hurricane, Ann Raines (Bill) of Hurricane; brothers Roger Ray of Pliny, Richard Ray (Kim) of GA, and David Ray of Milton; special nieces and nephews, Cameron Lewis, Anthony Raines, Andrew Raines, Amber Ray, and Virginia Shahan; great niece Ariel Dawn Pate; and close friend James Hopson.

Burial will be at 10:00 am in the Bowcott Cemetery at the Mount Union United Methodist Church in Pliny.

You may share memories or condolences with the family at www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com

Chapman Funeral Home, family owned and located at 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane is honored to serve the Ray family.

Tribute Wall

“ Melvin C. Ray

October 06, 2023 at 08:41 AM

“ He was a great friend. We went into the service together back in 1973 at Fort Knox Kentucky. Sorry for your loss! I always wondered what happened to him. If you want keep in touch im on facebook Billy Joe Scragg

Billy Scragg - December 26, 2016 at 07:15 PM

“ *Annie,
I am so sorry to see that your brother has passed -- I truly wish I had known.
I love you my sweet, longtime friend.
Pamela (Vance) Vaughn*

Pamela Basham Vaughn - June 09, 2016 at 10:53 AM