We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to all the family and friends, who brought food, ran errands, helped around the house, called and messaged and most importantly prayed for Mike and the family. To the staff of Kanawha HospiceCare, Dr. Geller at UPMC and Dr. Reynolds at Cabell Huntington, thank you for your stellar level care of Mike throughout his illness.

Mike will be remembered for his "Talent" for talking, always having a joke to tell, love of helping other's and enjoyment to talk politics (especially if you agreed with him). He will always be remembered as a loving husband and father.

“ To the Reid Family.

We are so sorry that Mike has passed on. Our prayers will be with you through this sad time. I worked with Mike for many years, while at Amos Plant. He was truly a very good man. My son also worked with Mike during a temporary assignment at Amos Plant. He really liked Mike and always spoke highly of him. We both use to run into Mike at the Go-Mart in Teays Valley, after we both left Amos Plant. It was always a pleasure to speak with him. May God comfort you all.
