“ Terry, Mike and Michele,

We were so sorry to learn of Mitzi. What a wonderful lady and I know you all have such fond memories of her. My favorite memory consist of sitting with her during sporting events involving you all and my boys and having such neat conversations with her. We did not solve all the problems, but I always left feeling so much better!!!!

She will be missed by all! But treasure the memories.

“ From the first time I met Mitzi I felt like I knew her forever. I always loved working with her when she worked at Old Colony. She truly was one of the sweetest people I have ever met, & we enjoyed talking about our children & grandchildren. We would talk off & on after she left Old Colony, but really reconnected when I found out she had been diagnosed with cancer. At that time my Mom was also fighting her battle with cancer & Mitzi was such a blessing to me during that time. We would always touch base just to say that we were thinking of one another. She even made a point to visit my Mom in the hospital when she herself was just getting discharged. I can honestly say that cancer seems to pick the strong ones. She & my Mom both handled their diagnosis & battle with more grace & strength than I thought could be possible. I have been so blessed by having Mitzi as my friend, & I am going to miss her more than I can put into words. I am also thankful that I got to know Terry & the rest of her family. The love between them was a blessing to witness. Our thoughts & prayers are with the family. Mike & I both will miss you Mitzi! Love you!

“ We met Mitzi originally when she gave my daughter a new cage for her guinea pigs through facebook. After meeting her and chatting at her home, we became facebook friends. She had such a welcome personality and lit up a room just by her presence. She is truly one of the most amazing women I have had the pleasure to meet. I watched her go through her battle from behind a computer screen and cried tears with each pain, each struggle, each time she overcame a battle. She may not have been a physical presence in my life but she was definitely a presence. Seeing the outpouring of love for her day by day, post by post, you could really see what an impact she had on many lives. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. May you find peace that her pain and struggle is over and she is resting comfortably.

“ I just wanted to say that she fought her battle with great courage and grace. She was motivated by love for her family and she fought hard. I was blessed to see her smile despite her difficulties and to know that she was not bitter. It takes a special person to overcome such circumstances and she was truly an overcomer. She will be missed...with love, Pastor Tim Campbell

“ I met Mitzi three years ago when I went to an open house for the very first time. I had many questions, and she was so patient and helpful. We had a wonderful conversation and connected on Facebook. It was an emotional time for me. My mother had just passed away, and Mitzi helped me figure out what I needed to do to get Mom's house ready to sell. Then she got sick. I had always said I wanted to be a blood donor but had never followed through, so when Mitzi sponsored a blood drive, I finally did it, and it has become routine. I think of her each time I donate. Sometimes we just need a little motivation to do the right thing, and she provided it. I'm so thankful she was willing to share her journey with others. I can't imagine anyone handling a tough situation with as much gratitude and grace as she (and her family) have done.

“ Mitzi and I had several classes together in high school and were best friends until I married and moved away. We reconnected a few years ago on Facebook for a brief time but haven't gotten to see each other in person. It's so very true...never miss the opportunity to tell someone how much you care and appreciate them because one day it may be too late.
