

Molly Lee Brown

July 3, 1922 - September 28, 2018

Molly Lee (Meeks) Brown, 96, of Pensacola, FL, formerly of Hometown, WV, went home to be with the Lord September 28, 2018. Molly was born July 3, 1922, in Plymouth to the late Herbert and Blanche Meeks. She married William A. "Bill" Brown, Jr., February 27, 1941. They built a home and family in Hometown. She was preceded in death by her husband, William A. "Bill" Brown, Jr.; daughter, Linda; grandson, Rusty Wagner; sisters: Dare McClintock, Betty McGrew, Eunice Null; and brother, Eugene Meeks.

Molly is survived by her son, William A. "Bill" Brown, III (Beth) of Pensacola, FL; granddaughters: Angie Asbury, Pam Asbury Miller, Wendy Wagner Davis, Anna Brown Pakes; grandson, William A. "Bill" Brown, IV; sisters: Katie Muck and Joann Walls; brothers: Harley Meeks and Guy Meeks. She is survived by three great-grandsons: Hunter Wagner, Andrew Pakes, and Kevin Pakes; and four great-granddaughters: Jordan Harris, Hannah Cyrus, Brooke Davis, and Haley Wagner. She is also survived by two great-great granddaughters: Hallie Davis and Jada Harris.

Molly was always proud to be called a Coal Miner's Daughter and "the Unsinkable Molly Brown." She was very proud of her humble WV roots and her WV hills. She was a perfect gardener, cook, baker, and homemaker. Her pies were the best around! She took special pride in her beautiful flower gardens and cooking talents. The best gift from Molly was a tin of her delicious cookies or fudge. At her home, there were always homemade sweets to share with visitors and strangers alike. A senior member of the Wilkinson Memorial United Methodist Church in Hometown, Molly loved singing in the choir, quilting with ladies of the church, and making candy for the church's Christmas fundraisers. She also enjoyed church services in Pensacola. Molly cherished the many vacations she and her husband, Bill, spent at Lake Sherwood in Greenbrier County. She was known as the lady who knew how to catch the "big" fish. Molly was a very special West Virginia lady.

Molly's Celebration of Life will be held at Chapman Funeral Home, Winfield, on October 6, 2018 at 11:00 am. Friends may gather one hour prior to the service. Graveside service will follow at Haven of Rest Memorial Gardens in Red House. Molly loved flowers and requested they be part of her celebration, but monetary donations may be made to Wilkinson Memorial United Methodist Church, Hometown, WV.

The family offers special thanks to Broadview Assisted Living and Emerald Coast Hospice, both of Pensacola, FL, for the wonderful care they provided Molly.

“ I could never master Maw Maws pie crust. It was like she had a tiny secret I never grasped. But I believe Jordan inherited her talent for baking. Childhood memories have been flooding my mind of all the wonderful and sad moments we have shared over the years. Maw maw had a strength about her that was beyond amazing. She nursed Paw Paw through his illness at home until he passed, the care she gave him was outstanding. The breezeway was the gathering place for our family and friends Great times great conversations and laughter!

We have lost many loved ones. Maw Maw has stood strong for 96 years as our family got smaller. At one time mentioning to me “I think God has forgotten me”

Well Maw Maw he did not forget you. Your heart is whole again, you suffer no more, our hearts are broken because you were the constant in our family, But my heart is full because we know you would not want to be tended to. With much love and respect, I love you Maw Maw❤️

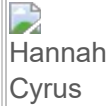

Give Mom, Rusty, Paw Paw, and everyone else a hug and kisses for us. Enjoy that heavenly breezeway. ❤️🌹❤️🌹❤️

“ I knew Molly from WMUMC, what a lovely, classy Christian lady! Molly was one of those rare people that you fell in love with immediately. I'm sure when she entered Heavens gate she heard those precious words, “Well done thou good and faithful servant.” Love you sweet Molly! Bobbi Harper

“ I’ll never forget all our times on the breezeway and picking you up for family functions. And I’ll definitely never forget your Chess pie either. Or cookies. Hopefully one day I’ll be like you and make cooking seem effortless! I love you Mamaw! -Hannah

I will miss our "unsinkable Molly Brown" at church in Pensacola. Loved to sit with her when we sang "take me home, country roads".... she'd get the biggest smile! Prayers and love to Beth and Bill.
