“ Nancy, will be missed so very much by both Mike and I. She was a treasure to us both. She and Mike joked around with one another and had such fun. One day as she stood over him as he sat at a table she began to count 1, 2, 3,...she picked up a hair from his balding head as she said each number. We all rolled with laughter...including Mike.

As for me, I have lost a precious friend, a "Sister in Christ" and my "Surrogate Older Sister". She was one of the most kind, compassionate, loving and generous people, I have ever known. I was blessed she became part of my earthly journey. Until the day I see her smile and feel her hug once more, I will hold my memories of her close in my heart. I love you, My Nancy Girl.
