“ Barry I was so shocked to learn of your wife's death! It seems like death is all around. The last time I remember seeing and talking to you we were talking about my Dad's and your Mother's deaths.

I wish I would have known your wife. The photo of her is just lovely.

You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Barry, I am so sorry for your loss. Nancy was my very best friend when we were seniors in high school. We had such fun together and my favorite thing was to go to her house and visit with her, and her mother, and her beloved Aunt May Rose. The day after President Kennedy was killed we rode the bus to Charleston to look at the department store windows draped in black with large portraits of him. After graduation we both worked in Charleston and had lunch together frequently. The last time I saw Nancy, she took me to her pet store and I bought a bird from her. She was a special person with a beautiful smile. She is now at peace in the arms of our Heavenly Father. I love you Nancy Lane Worstall Jordan.
