“ I met Nellie around 58 years ago. After I graduated from Hurricane High School, I went to work at McDaniels Grocery Store in Culloden. She was the person that I took her place as she moved on to another job. Very sweet person.

“ Nellie Terry was a humble, kind and loving neighbor. Her home was always welcoming and fun. Koolaid popsicles... laughter and fun. Nellie was a great mom, grandmother, wife and neighbor. Great Christian too.

So sorry to learn that she's passed. I last saw her in March.

May her memory be eternal.

“ Nellie was one of the most sweetest women I know. A real Jewel. I've known her since I was 7 years old. She always set a place for me at her table just like I was one of her kids. The neighborhood children played many games at her house. How we all didn't drive her crazy is a testament to the patience and love she always showed us kids. Your in many of my memories I, Nellie..I am blessed for knowing you and Bernard. God bless you on your journey to a beautiful heaven.
