

Nina Jane Gibson

March 9, 1928 - October 15, 2015

After a long illness, our precious mother, Nina Jane Williams Gibson, 87, entered the gates of Heaven on October 15, 2015 surrounded by her loving family. She was a 40 year resident of Cross Lanes & had previously resided in Charleston and Fraziers Bottom. Nina was born on March 9, 1928, in Powellton, WV, to John Franklin Williams and Fannie Jane Kidd Williams. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, John, Vernon, Charles, Donald, and Carl Williams and also by her sisters, Helen Young, Lola Akers, and Reba Coombs and great grandson, Cody Roby. Nina is survived by her loving children, Karen Sue Dixon of St. Albans; Bruce (Barbara) Gibson of Faith, NC; Barbara (Gary) Lanham of Cross Lanes; Brenda "Binki" (Pat) Semenie of Scott Depot; Deborah (Jim) Hodge of Huntington and Vicki (Dave) McGuire of Ripley. Also surviving Nina is her loving sister, Jackie Gillispie of Fraziers Bottom. She is also survived by her former husband, Charles Wayne Gibson of Teays Valley. In addition, Nina is survived by 25 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and extended family & friends.

Nina was a child of the Great Depression and also a "coal miner's daughter," having spent much of her childhood in the coal mining areas of Fayette County. Her family later moved to Putnam County, where she lived for several years while raising her family. Nina devoted her life to her family and, for over thirty years, was co-owner and secretary/receptionist for Gibson's Scale Service. Nina was a devoted Christian and formerly attended Charleston

Mountain Mission. She had a talent for painting and sewing, and she loved to read and work crossword puzzles. Nina was a gifted cook and was famous for her Sunday dinners and graham cracker pies. She was highly knowledgeable on a variety of subjects which she passed along to many children as a mother, grandmother, and child-care provider. She was extremely proud of her family and the fact that all six of her children were born on a Sunday.

Although she will be highly missed, we know that she has gone to a better place where there is no pain or suffering, and are comforted by the knowledge that we will see her again. We would like to thank the staff and caregivers at Teays Valley Center for their loving care of our mother.

The family will receive visitors from 6:00-8:00 PM, Sunday, October 18 at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane. Funeral service will be 2:00 PM, Monday, October 19, at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane followed by burial at Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans, WV.

“ Nina was the sister of my late father, Carl (Duke). He loved talking with her and with sister, Jackie, and reminiscing about growing up together. Our deepest sympathies go out to her family and we wish we could be there with you. Sending you lots of love and all our prayers at this difficult time. She was loved and will always be loved. What a great lady!

“ Children of my friend Nina,
I had the priviledge of knowing Nina for many years as your Aunt Jackie and I were best friends while growing up there in Fraziers Bottom. It was a pleasure to know your Mother and visit in her home. She always made me feel so comfortable and yes she was a good cook and homemaker. I know your hearts are broken but yet you do know she is not suffering now. Heaven has gained another Angel.
Jackie, I know you will miss her.....I am sad, too.

Sincerely

Loretta, what a sweet message you posted here! I cried when I found the card that you mailed to Mom recently. It brought back so many memories of my childhood & was so accurate. I left it on her table so others could see it too. She was aware that you sent it, but I read it to her once more. It was a special blessing!
