

Noah Ryan Pollastrini

February 12, 1999 - December 31, 2022

Noah Ryan Pollastrini, 23, of Scott Depot, WV, entered into Heaven at 9:00 pm on December 31, 2022, from Duchenes Muscular Dystrophy.

He is survived by his parents Dante Joseph Pollastrini and Harmony Jo Sowards of Scott Depot, WV, sister; Mackenzie Leah Siders, brother; Seth Jakob Pollastrini, great-grandmother Barbara Gross, grandmothers; Elizabeth Pollastrini, Joanna Morton, and a host of many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Noah is predeceased by his grandfathers' Gildo Joseph Pollastrini and David Eugene Morton, cousins; Kasey Nicole Bishop and Ryan William Basham, who also died from Duchenes Muscular Dystrophy.

Noah graduated from St. Albans High School in 2016. He liked everyone at the school and the other students. The teachers, aides, and staff all loved Noah. He was funny and he could make people laugh and be happy. He enjoyed participating in the Kanawha County Work Exploration Program while in school. He loved playing X-Box and had friends that he played with from all over the U.S.

Noah liked going to Monster Truck shows, WWE Wrestling, Live on the Levee, the Putnam County Fair, and especially going to the Muscular Dystrophy

Camp and Myrtle Beach in the summers.

Visitation and Burial will be at 10:30 Saturday, January 7, 2023. At Judson Baptist Church, on Bills Creek, Scott Depot, WV.

Anyone wishing to leave it an online condolence may do so by visiting Noah's tribute page: www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com.

Chapman Funeral Home 3941 Teays Valley Road Hurricane, WV 25526 is honored to handle the Pollastrini family arrangements.

“ So my daughter Amber Grimm and I first met the boys when we moved into the apartments on Rolling Acres in Winfield. Noah would enjoy running in place and took quite a long hike with me and Seth out through the creek line through the woods near our house. How I wish I had made more bikes back then. Anyway as Noah fit older, the family met my boyfriend Rocco who was also in a wheelchair. Noah came to one of Amber's birthday in Stewart Acres and he and Rocco raced in their wheelchairs around the pool. Noah won of course. Though we haven't been in touch for some time, Noah definately touched my heart as I'm sure he did so many of you.

“ Our hearts go out to you Dante and family as you say goodbye to Noah. We will always remember when you guys were here at our house and we took Noah for a ride in our Mustang convertible. He really enjoyed that special day. He was a special young man. You did a wonderful job taking care of him. Blessings of comfort to all of you.

Love, Rick and Mary
