“ Max, Kim an Meg, I am so saddened to learn of Norma's death. As you will recall, I hired her to be the Executive Director of WVTLA. She and I had so many long and tough days that first year, but we also had many fun and rewarding days also. At the end of the year, we had turned the Association around and made it profitable and viable. It was in large part due to Norma's energy and drive for success. I have so many fond memories of our times together. I shall treasure them. I shall miss Norma, as I have, since she retired. She loved all of you immensely. Cherish her memories and time will help cure the sadness.

Sincerely,

“ I am a current member and former officer of WVTLA now known as the WVAJ. Through this organization, I had the pleasure and honor of working with and being under the direction of Norma. She had a great commitment to the association and to the rights of individuals. I remember our memberships' yearly trips to Washington, DC to meet with trial lawyer leaders and then visit our congressional delegation. Everything was personally and professionally coordinated by Norma. She was also very warm and personable but, could call a "spade a spade" when needed. I have nothing but fond memories of her and am sure that she is sorely missed by her family and friends. My sympathies and condolences to all of them. Sincerely, Bill Richardson, Jr. (Parkersburg)
