“ Heather, I'm so sorry about your mom and wish I'd kept in touch better. She was always thoughtful, and so kind to us and our family. Words can not express how much we appreciated the care and time she spent with Chris's mom, Mary. Heaven has gained another angel.

“ Always full of love for us as being her family. Cherishing her texts that always ended with “I love you guys so much”. Looking around and seeing all the many crafts she made for us, especially the “Powell Farm” ones, the beach ones, the cow ones made for Rog. We will miss her so very much. Funny story...she painted a Powell Farm rock to hide. We carried it to Orlando to hide. Rog changed his mind and wanted to keep it. 😊 So her rock flew to Orlando and back with us. It’s in his drawer right now. Pammie we sure will miss you. You were loved.

Heather, I am so sorry to hear about your mother Pam. When I first met Pam, she was married to my cousin Norris. Three things about her that stood out to me: she nice, easy to talk to and loved to laugh. Since that first meeting, no matter where we saw each, the store, on trips and yes even funerals, she was the same Pam. Never changing and I liked that about her. Pam, you will be missed very much by your family and friends.
