“ *Oh, Pam, I remember the first time we met. Our children were dating and did something goofy that got them into trouble. I think we all handled the situation well. Although we lived in different towns, we were together for so many wonderful occasions from that time on. I will miss you, but I am glad that you're no longer in pain. I promise to keep an eye on our "babies" and their babies.
Go with God,
Becky*

“ My beautiful cousin Pammie, your smile that lit up a room will sorely be missed, your love of family will always be remembered. My fond memories of growing up getting hand me down clothing and toys, I always felt so pretty when I wore your clothing and so special playing with the barbies. May you rest in Heaven. Love you for eternity.
