

Patricia Nelson Miller

Patricia Josephine Nelson Miller of St. Albans passed peacefully on November 5, 2012 from the long-term effects of Alzheimer's Disease. Pat is survived by her husband of 59 years, Teddy Ray Miller, daughter Kim (Mark Moss) of Savannah, Georgia, son James David (Darcy) of Rockledge, Florida, and son Robert (Maria) of Chesterfield, Missouri. In addition she is survived by six grandchildren. Pat was born December 14, 1930 in Berwind, West Virginia, the daughter of Alex William Nelson and Josephine Winslow Nelson. She was preceded in death by a brother, Gerald Nelson, and a sister, Ann McKee. She is survived by a sister, Betty Koch of Huntley, Illinois. Pat graduated from Big Creek High School in War, West Virginia and was a graduate of Marshall University. She served as a teacher for several years prior to choosing to stay at home and raise her children. A resident of St. Albans since 1958, she relished her role as a mother, wife, and homemaker and as a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Pat leaves behind many friends and loved ones. The family would like to express special thanks to Teays Valley Assisted Living and Kanawha Hospice Care in particular, along with others, for the care and consideration administered to her prior to her passing. Pat's body was received by the West Virginia University Human Gift Registry for educational purposes. A memorial service followed by a dinner will be held beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, November 16th at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, 815 Kanawha Terrace in St. Albans. Both friends and family are invited to attend the dinner and memorial service. The family suggests those wishing to contribute to Pat's memories do so by making a contribution to a charity of their choosing.
