“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Paul is an example of a humanitarian. He was so kind to me and my husband who was terminally ill at the time we met. We were looking forward to having the Callahan family as neighbors, that must wait awhile. God bless all of you, you were so fortunate to have Paul as husband, father, grandfather and friend. Rest well my good friend.

“ Paul sold me my first bow and arrows when we were in our early teens, and taught me how to use it, even though he was only one year older than me. I still have it. My sincere condolences to Sue and the rest of the family.
