

Paul Gandee

January 7, 1983 - December 27, 2018

Paul Daniel Gandee, 35 of St. Albans, passed away suddenly Thursday, December 27, 2018 at home.

He graduated from Hurricane High School and West Virginia State University (Criminal Justice) where he was a past treasurer of Theta Kappa Epsilon. He also earned the rank of Eagle Scout of which he was very proud. Paul worked for Mount Tech Communications in cell tower maintenance, different companies in security, and had previously worked at GS4 and R.L. Laughlin Co.

He is survived by his parents, David Gandee (Shannon) of Salisbury, MD and Laurie Gandee of St. Albans; grandmother Reanwin Gandee of Hurricane; sisters, Angela Gandee (Pete Aston) of St. Albans and Kristin Gandee (Paul Lang) of Hurricane; aunt, Connie Gordon (Wayne) of Proctorville OH; best friends, Nathan Rice of Hurricane and Carl Payne of Fraziers Bottom; and many other extended family and friends.

Funeral service will be held at 11:00 am Monday, January 7, 2019, at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane.

Visitation will be from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm Sunday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Red Cross Disaster Relief at P.O.

Box 37839 Boone Iowa 50037.

“ *My Brother was a good man, I'd tell him everything that was going on in my life, because he cared.
My Brother was my protector, I'd tell him all of my worries, because I could count on him.
My Brother was my confidant, I'd tell him all of my secrets, because I could trust him.
My Brother was kind, I'd tell him to come visit me and he did, because I knew he loved me.
My Brother was a gentle soul, I'd tell him how alone I felt, because he would comfort me.
My Brother's birthday is today, what I would give to tell him again happy Birthday and I love him.
I am extremely thankful every day he was my brother. Even though the pain of his loss is too much to bare some days, I endure for him, because my Brother is worthy.
My Brother is greatly missed and cherished always.*
