“ One of my favorite memories of Peter was a time we walked home from school together. We were both attending Eules Junior High. On this particular day we had a load of books in our backpacks....I told Peter i was not suppose to be walking with boys. That my father would be very upset and that he had a shotgun. We were walking along side the road, before we knew it i yelled "There's my dads car". Peter took off running behind a tree....his very large (full of books) backpack was sticking out. My mother got out of the car laughing and said " I see you behind the tree"! He walked very slowly over with the biggest red face....i think that was our last walk home together. We laughed about it years later.

“ My Heartfelt condolences to Peters family. It is hard to understand why he is gone, I tried real hard to rely on my faith to understand this, it will be hard to get over. We have to thank God for blessing us to have him in our lives, especially mine. He was a brother to me. During High School we had the times our our lives. Because of him, High School was fun for me. We worked at McDonald's, Popeyes Taco Bueno, and some other fast food chains. Where ever he went, I went. We graduated High School, we went our separate ways to take on Life, I joined the military, he made a living as a Line-man. We both had busy lives, but when we had sometime to settle, we would chat on the phone for awhile to catch up and remember how we enjoyed each other's company, or discuss our disappointments that happened in our lives. We were there for each other's support when we were able to do so. His pride and joy was his Wife Mendy and his children. I wish I was able to introduce him to my wife and welcome him to my home, and meet his wife and kids too. We cannot let our careers dictate our lives. If we would have stopped and smell the roses, I probably would have more time to spend with him and his family. I have always believed that things happen for a reason. Pete didn't just happen, God felt his purpose on earth has been fulfilled, and it was time for him to come home. Well Pete, I will see you when I'm done here on Earth as well, I still have a lot to do until it's time for me to come. Rest In Peace brother! Until we meet again.

“ Pete in such a short time of knowing you you touched my soul. I keep waiting on you to come in and say "How you doing?" You are truly missed and thank you for your prayers during my battle with breast cancer. You were one truly stand up guy.
