“ To Phil Mooney's Family,

I recently learned of Phil's passing from one of our old climbing partners. I am sorry to hear of his passing and extend my condolences to you. Phil was a great guy and a good friend to those of us in our climbing group and other friends from back in the 70's. We shared a lot of experiences and good times together. We were all pretty close for some years then dispersed in various directions.

We would like to know more of Phil's passing and his recently life. I personally have not seen Phil for maybe 10 years and lost email contact 5 years ago. We would appreciate it if someone would contact us. You can contact me and I will pass the information on to the others. All of us would be more than willing to talk with you of Phil and our times together if you are interested.

Be brave, be strong and be with your grief. This will help you heal and is what I expect Phil would want. God Bless All of You. TJ Stetz

“ From the moment we met Phil, all of us in our family just loved him. His wonderful laugh and his whistling always made me smile. His love of his grandchildren was so evident; Brenna, Garrett, and Ben were his pride and joy. He will always be an amazing man, friend, and Christian. He will always live in our memories and we know he is living for eternity in Heaven.

So sorry to hear of Phil's passing. We graduated from GWHS in 1968 and were in the band together. I learned of the passing from friends who attended the 50th class reunion. What a great life he lived. May God give peace to his family.
