“ Rick,

I know it has been a lot of years since we last spoke, but I wanted to let you know how I felt about your father. Back in the 80s when we attended as many Marshall games as we could, our father made me feel like family when we were around them. He was a lot of fun to go to games with and I want you to know how special I felt both your parents were. Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss.

“ I want to offer my deepest condolences for your loss. The heartache we experience when we lose a loved one is some of those most intense pain. So I wanted to share something that has helped me to cope with a dear loss. Isaiah 25:8 says "He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe every tear from their eyes." What a beautiful promise. Soon all the pain and suffering that death leaves us with will be gone forever because our loved ones will be brought back to life through a resurrection.

Barbara and I feel your loss. Please accept our condolences. Ralph was a great person to be around and was always fun to have a conversation with. I knew Ralph through working at Otis. His excellent work ethic and leadership carried over to his two sons who also work at Otis Elevator, one recently retired. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
