“ Ms Hoffman was a sweet lady. One of my favorite teachers in school....we even kept in contact after school and she would say my first Christmas card every year would be from you the day after thanksgiving. Thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ I always looked forward to seeing Ms. Hoffman and she seemed to enjoy our company as well (most times). I just recall being happy whenever she was around and when I was in her class- that means a lot. I still talk about her! I appreciate her life and the part she played in mine.

“ I met Ramona while attending college at WV State Marshall. We shared teaching areas with me at the Poca Middle School and she at the Poca High School. We laughed, shared crazy classes and our degrees together. She was a wonderful, kind friend that I cherished even though we lived so far apart. We used to love shopping, shopping and more shopping. She was with me and I with her through bad times and the very good times. She loved her family especially her daughter, Terri, and her family. I will miss my friend but will meet once again in Heaven where all our pain and worries are no more. God Bless all. Phyllis Reynolds Hertrick.

“ I will never forget as a young man from the country that Mrs. Hoffman took the time to invite myself and some other boys to be a part of the Future Homemakers of America club in High School. Mrs. H basically taught us all social etiquette in a dinner environment. I appreciate the time she spent with us to help us be better citizens for our community knowing that one day we would be out of our rural environments and those skills would be utilized. She will be missed and I wish I was in town to share this story with her family.

“ Mrs. Hoffman was one of my favorite teachers. I loved her spunky attitude. She always made me laugh. I am so sorry to hear she is gone, but her memory will always live on. I was one of her students many years ago. I have always thought of her over the years. I am thankful for her love and her teaching. May God bless her family and friends during this difficult time. My love and prayers are with you. With deepest sympathy, Misty Burns
