“ Randy was my IT colleague at TMH for 20 years and a friend. If I ever needed anything he was always willing to help. I learned of his illness during a casual conversation last summer, but in doing so he confided in me and I am glad to have been there for him. I know he fought as hard as anyone could. Rest easy brother and I'll see you one day on the other side.

“ This was a shock. I worked with Randy for several years in the IT department at Thomas. He was hilarious, always making us laugh with his unique sense of humor. Talented musician. Exceptionally bright and gifted at his work. Prayers of peace and comfort to his wife and family at this time of horrible loss. Gone too soon.

“ Randy, you were a wonderful friend to my husband Robert. We were both better people for knowing you. Your kindness and wittiness were rare, and will be greatly missed. You fought the brave fight, Randy, that is certain. "Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear - not absence of fear." - Mark Twain
