“ So many years we have known each other that the memories keep flowing. His sense of humor is unsurpassed, his love for family and friends is priceless. What brought Randy into my life was the desire to know more about the Lord and study of His Word, Bible studies and then long time friendship. We traveled, played and prayed together. Sporting events were the top of his list for activities from NASCAR to high school football even teaching tennis to young people. I will be watching Marshall play Uconn in the Myrtle Beach bowl on Monday, not because it's football, but a way to remember my friend knowing he would be watching too. God Peace To Robin and all the family he talked about so often.

“ Randy - I will never forget all the years we spent together & I'm so glad we were able to remain friends in the end. However, my heart is broken & I will miss you dearly. I will treasure the time we had & the imprint we left on each other's lives.

I am joyful that you're now with our Heavenly Father & have been reunited with loved ones. I feel at peace knowing you're no longer in pain or have to fight the battles against time & your body that you've endured your entire life. You are pure spirit now & no longer weighted down by the burdens of the flesh. You can rest in the loving embrace of Jesus, now.

I'll see you in the light.

With love always - Andrea

“ Sending prayers to Ms Robin and the Harris family. Randy was not just my friend he was my family. My heart is broken to hear the news. He was a kind gentle soul always was very thoughtful. He always told me I was his hero but actually he was always mine. He always thought of me when he seen any military memorabilia and supporting my military career. No matter what he was always there for me if I needed him. I met Randy while he lived in Columbus and I knew from the start he had a heart of gold. I am going to miss you so much Randy but I know you will be my angel and protect over me until we meet again Fly High my friend I Love You

“ Falling asleep watching super bowl, fishing for turtles & talking fish, traveling to Hawk's Nest for pictures, brining in the New Year playing cards, eating ice cream cake on my birthday....Randy was a great friend to all but especially my wife first, and me next! You brought joy and laughter to us all! You will be missed. Sad for all of us missing you, happy you are with your dad and a perfect heart!
