“ Uncle Randy was one of the kindest people ever, and his wife Nancy was such a beautiful match for him. It's been many years since I saw them, but they were always so very welcoming and wonderful.
He always had a smile. Always. That's what I remember most. And he was funny! He had so much life to him and I remember, as a kid, that he always made time to see how I was doing. No doubt he has gone home to be with his Father. My thoughts and prayers are with Nancy, Dustin, Keri and their families. I know his loss will be felt, but there is so much comfort in knowing he is dancing in Heaven with the Lord!
