“ I don't know if we will be able to make it down to West Virginia for the services for sure, but we wanted to let you know that we send our deepest sympathies to our West Virginia cousins for our Aunt Reba. I have many, many memories of her from over the years - too many to mention here. One funny thing I will always remember of Aunt Reba was from when my brothers and I were little and we visited Aunt Reba or she visited us. She would tell us "In or out - don't be coming in and out of the door so often" as she stood there with the flyswatter in her hand and we all knew what that meant. Later when I grew up she and I would laugh about it after she told my kids the same thing. I know Aunt Reba was a very strong willed woman who let you know where you stood with her, but she did have a lot of love and caring in her heart to give. Aunt Reba is not in pain any more and she is now with Uncle Raymond, Dad, Uncle Gene, Uncle Roy, Aunt Pedie and Uncle Norman watching over all of us. Rest in peace Aunt Reba we love you.
