“ *Avis, Randall, & Diana, I was shocked to hear of the passing of Regina. She was always such a happy friendly cousin. Please accept my deepest sympathies and condolences. I did not know either her husband or son, but I am sure they are deeply saddened.
Please share my sympathies with them.
In Christian love,

“ Regina loved my girls and we all loved her!! I recall many visits where we talked for hours and she would play with them and tell them stories of when Matt was little!! She honestly was one of the best people I knew! I feel blessed that she was apart of our little family and will continue to be in our hearts! She was truly a example of God and she will be missed by many.
