“ I worked as a volunteer with Richard at River Ridge serving coffee. He was a very kind man and always helpful in anyway he could be.

I enjoyed talking with him while we worked together and I could tell he was a genuinely good guy. I'm so sorry his life ended early and I pray God's blessings and healing for the wife and family.

We have been friends with Richard & Nancy for decades. We all attended Presbyterian Church of the Covenant in Hurricane until they moved to River Ridge to be with their son and his family We served together on committees, many social activities, dined out etc. He was a good Christian man and loved the Lord. We are honored to have known him and shared in his life. Love to Nancy, Curt and the entire Fellure family!

“ Richard was our neighbor from the time I moved across the street from him and Nancy 20 years ago. He would do anything for anyone. He loved piddling in the yard and keeping it just “perfect “. I also can't think of Richard without his “little red truck “ entering my mind. We will miss him a lot-always a great neighbor and a good man♥♥

Nancy, we are here for anything we can help you with.
