“ I send my sympathy and prayers to Bob's family. We were active in First Baptist Church in South Charleston many years ago as well as our parents camped together. He was like the Big Brother I didn't have. May he rest in peace.

“ I used to babysit Bob a long time ago. He was a busy little fellow but all went well most days. When he moved to St. Albans I didn't see him much after that. He was a good kid all in all. Becky, I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Bob, or as we called him, Flippin ,was a LSM clerk when I went to the USPS in 1985 then became a supervisor. He was pretty much a quite person and a good supervisor that only asked that you do your job and wasn't one to stand over you. He was one of the good guys. R.I.P. Flippin.
