“ My sister, Janie (Copenhaver) Miles had English in Mrs. Harry's class with Bob, and he only had to write a term paper and give a speech to graduate. He said, I'll flunk then. Janie said, "Bob, all these years in school, and then not to graduate? No, you've got to give that speech. I'll write your paper, but you have to get up there and give that speech yourself! You can do this!" He read the paper she wrote for him, and he said, ok, I'll do it, thanks. So Bob graduated! Prayers for Gayla and the family, Bob was a great guy!

“ My favorite memory with Bob. We were going from Winfield to St. Albans in Bob's blue and white Chevelle around 9:00 one night. It had been snowing for a couple hours and Rt 35 was covered. We started a curve not far from where Bob's current house is now. Not sure how it happened but the car began to spin in circles. Don't know how many times it spun but it was a few. The car eventually stopped perfectly in the opposite lane headed back to Winfield. Someone in another car stopped and asked what happened. Bob in perfect stride said we were just turning around because he forgot his wallet and needed to go home and get it. Charlie Bennett
