“ I am proud to say I knew Bob. He always had a story. Bob had a great sense of humor and I think that is what I liked the most about him. He peaked my interest in land and lease work and I probably wouldn't be where I am today if I hadn't sat at his desk, hanging on every word he said. He will be missed. I'm not sure what heaven is like, but I hope there is a "bull pen" where Bob is swapping stories with the likes of Joe Crim, Roy Rice and my dad.

“ My bestest friend...before I even kNew what a best friend was...this is her dad. A Good man of few words. But when spoken,always Kind words. In Sun Valley, I remember he captured a Huge Black snake that sent us toddlers a runnin!!!! He smiled that soft smile under his mustache. Then in Riverlake, one of my Favorite spots...the Dillons front porch!!! That sweet cigar aroma, where he would smoke and discard the butts, since Mrs. Dillon did not allow them inside. :) aaaaah~ I think I enjoyed those cigars n front porch as much as he did. Maybe that was the link that made such a special bond between myself and my dear friends' dad. Mr. Dillon...u will be missed. Love to Mrs. Dillon. I kNow she is glad you have arrived. I bet the chocolate chip cookies are heavenly~ Rest in Peace Mr. Dillon. ? rest in Peace. Always~Rene'
