“ I grew up with Goph when he lived near Leipsic Ohio. I remember the braces and crutches he had to wear! He just wanted to be free of those shackles! That day finally came and we looked forward to playing Jr high school football together. Hell of a lineman! He'd dig his heels In and nobody could move him! He stayed in touch and I know his heart was crushed when his son Josh passed away a while back! I sure am gonna miss those late night messenger chats! He was definitely a brother! I will surely miss him, but we will meet again my friend! Good bye RKG!!

“ You are and for ever cherished. Through tears I smile , we had fun. Do you remember when you lived at Mervin's place outside Liepsic. How many of us squeezed into that car :). I was at one point in the rear window. It was full a pizza run I think.Age may have blurred the memory's but not the love that warms us. Your mama and daddy I loved just being around you guys.I pray you have found that peace as you journey on with out us. I thank you for the journey you shared with us.I'm not going to say I'll miss you , we'll cross journeys again. Always love Rose Duncan Barkhimer give everyone my love
