“ I met Bob in 1990 when I hired him to work for me. Bob quickly rose to be the best employee, as I learned he always gave 110% in everything he did.

We eventually became good friends and then roommates. I have lots of fond memories from board games to candlepin bowling among the many activities we did together.

We both became truck drivers and even drove across the country together in separate trucks several times.

After I married and lost my father, we moved away to be closer and care for my mother, but we never lost contact over the years. Bob was like a brother I never had, then like a father after I lost my parents. Bob always had an open ear and advice to offer and was my best friend of all time. He will be missed immensely by many.

Rest in peace my friend. Until we meet again.
