“ I will always remember Bob for his faith in God and willingness to serve God in anyway that he could at our church. He greeted people with a warm smile, handshake, and a bulletin. He sang his favorite song, God is so good and it touched everyone's hearts. I consider it an honor and a privilege that I knew Bob. Rain, snow, or shine wouldn't stop him from coming to church. You would see him walking with his Bible in his hand going to church. He will be greatly missed at Buffalo Baptist Church!
