

Robert James McAteer

November 29, 2012

Robert "Bob" James McAteer, 81, passed away Thursday, November 29, at home in St. Albans. He is survived by Joan, his wife of 57 years; sons, Kevin and wife, Judy, of Frederick, Md., and Michael McAteer of Hurricane; grandchildren, Stephen McAteer and Elizabeth Anders; and great-grandchildren, Madison Rolls, Aiden McAteer, Davon Anders and Ryleigh Flynn Anders, all of Frederick, Md.

Bob was born in Chester, Pa., the son of Elizabeth and Michael McAteer. Bob was an active member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church for 57 years. He created Micro Record Retention, Inc., a micrographics service, which he brought to Columbia Gas Transmissions in 1976. He retired from Columbia Gas in 1994, following a successful career as a project manager. He was a licensed pilot and proud owner of a Piper Tri Pacer airplane. He loved photography and was an avid hunter and fly fisherman in his youth.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Michael and Elizabeth McAteer; his half-brother, Hugh; and his son, Shawn.
