“ I loved you since before you were born and will love you forevermore. You were the best nephew any aunt could possibly hope for. You were a bright, fun, silly, loving and adventurous little boy who grew into a man who filled us all with so much pride. Forty-eight years weren't nearly enough but ninety eight wouldn't have been either. We will miss you always but you will live on in our hearts and memories.

Woody sure could make you smile. "Jenny, where's forest?" is one of his sayings at work. He was a kind hearted man and loved Barb dearly. My heart goes out to Barb and Woody's family and friends.

“ This still seems impossible. My prayers and good vibes are with your lovely wife and family. You were one of the first people id see in the store on early days and always had a joke. You brightened so many days for so many people Woody. Thank you.

“ Woody you are definitely going to be missed by many. I didn't work with you as long as some others did but I'm going to miss you so much. I'm still in shock that you are really gone. Kroger is not going to be the same without you. You used to tell me that you could be a big butthole but in reality, you were a big teddy bear. We definitely shared a lot laughs together as well. Sending love and prayers to your family
