“ Mike,

It saddens me to learn of the passing of your father, Roger.

He was a wonderful man who truly enjoyed his family, especially his two grandsons!

Please pass along my condolences to Teresa, Justin & Josey, and of course your mother, Violet.

I hope you find comfort in remembering the happy times with your Dad and knowing that many family and friends are thinking of you at this difficult time.

With deepest sympathies,

Chris Withrow, Macy & Maddie Withrow

“ I will always remember the fishing trip to Shaver's Fork with Roger, his father, my father, and one of Dad's coworkers and his boys. We walked for miles, camped out several days, but caught very few fish. I remember Roger saying that if we had planned on catching our dinner, we would have starved.
