“ Rose McDonough and I have been friends and co-workers for years now. I met Rose Mary early on and just loved her. She was spunky as single Mom's have to be to make their child's life full and happy. She was funny and generous. She WAS Mama Rose at the studio.

*Rose,
We are so grateful for so many special chapters in our lives involving your wonderful mom & you !
It was great to see her bloom over the last several years & enjoy traveling with us.
She will be missed by all. But her spirit & love will remain in all our hearts. May she continue to bloom in God's great Flower garden with Love, Joy & Peace for ever & always !
