“ Since the loss of our parents & grandparents the family began to unravel the past few years. The close bond we shared in our youth seems many years ago. However, Kay always managed to get us together & share happier times. We will continue to love you Kay & miss you very much! Your Ohio cousins, Terry & Tom Stephens ❤️

“ In remembering Kay when we had such wonderful High school memories, she was always such a happy and kind friend. Even when me & Vickie Lovejoy last spoke with her several weeks back, she was concerned for another classmate that had just lost her husband! Beautiful, caring, kind, I pray for her dear family that they find comfort in her love for them and others.

“ Kay has been a part of our family for many years beginning with her first introduction to my parents over 25 years ago. She has been a faithful, loving and compassionate friend to me while loving on my elderly parents, most recently my mother who loved her like a daughter. She often called Kay my older sister. I will love and cherish our friendship/family bond for the remainder of my life. Her love and dedication to every person she met is a true legacy and speaks to the heart and character of this wonderful woman. I am honored to call her my friend. I know one thing for sure - I will see her again. Love, Rose Ann, Conni, Alan and family.
