“ The greatest gift that I could receive was to be the "over the fence" friendship of Ted and Sandy. We shared so many thoughts and prayers to comfort each other. We shared our flowers and sounds of my ponds sprinkling prayers as we worked on our flower beds. My friendship started amazingly enough in the late 60"s as Ted and I worked together at ZMM in Charleston. It was God's will that I would choose to move in front of them in Winfield so they could watch over me in my back yard since I lived alone. God has a wonderful way of placing a person where they will be safe with neighbors. Our story about our "over the fence" relationship is one that their children have heard many times and always brings a smile to our faces. I am so privileged to have had them as my friend and neighbor for the 20 years that God gave us. Both of them are so missed.

“ When Mike and I would drive from Connecticut to visit with our daughter, we always made a point to visit with Sandy and Ted. They were so gracious and inclusive that you truly felt that we were welcome into their fold. Sandy, of course, would give us a tour through her flourishing garden..those plants and flowers seemed to emit this feeling of "we are loved"...such a peaceful place. The last time we spoke, on the phone about a week ago, Sandy was so positive in her tone and seemed so at peace with herself and you could tell that it was sincere. The lesson for me is to have that same outlook and faith always. She was truly a gem...she will be in our thoughts always. With Love, Sigrid and Mike Perry
