“ Sarah, her husband Clifford, daughters, Billie and Jeanie....as family to me. I was honored to be Sarah's pastor and also the whole family. Sarah was as close of a friend that I had. She was a board director at the Logan Gospel Tabernacle now the Word of Life church...but our people developed the land, and Clifford along with Ernie Marcum did the majority of clearing the land and building the foundation for the initial building back in 1982-1984. Sarah was indeed a leader. Her cunning ability regarding finances and seeing issues ahead of time to avoid problems was un-caning. She was primarily responsible for my being hired at FEMA. I loved working as a reservist for 29 years and Sarah and myself retired very near the same period. We stayed in touch via phone calls, text, and Facebook as well as my daily Bible studies. I will miss her tremendously. She indeed was one of my dearest, closest and best friend. Love you world without end.

“ One of the very best friends I had the privilege of having in my life. So many laughs, secrets and memories through the years of friendship. Although we didn't see each other after our retirement, she was always there when I called or text. I am so grateful to have her as my friend. 💔🙏
