“ I am so very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear son Sawyer. Although mere words cannot diminish the profound sorrow of losing a child knowing that God cares so deeply for us when our hearts are broken from grief can bring us a sense of peace and hope (Psalms 34:18). May He sustain you and your family in his loving care in the days ahead.

“ My Deepest Sympathy. It's so hard to lose someone you love so dearly, but especially someone so young. I am so sorry you are going through that. Sharing fond memories with family and friends will really help keep Sawyer deep within your heart. Mere words cannot describe what you must be feeling. Please know that God is here for you. He really wants to help you. God promises: "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness." I sincerely hope knowing that God really cares for you, is there for you, wants to and is waiting to help you is comforting. When it hurts, when you're sad, when there are tears, please keep these words in mind, and remember God "will really hold on to your right hand." Lean on God. I hope these words give you the comfort, strength, and courage you need to make it through this very difficult time.

“ Dear Dorseys, 22 years ago our sons obit appeared in the paper,he was almost 2 1/2. He loved his Batman pj's. He was the youngest of 3 children. You wonder why, you wonder if and how you can survive this. Like this note, we heard from people we didnt know with love and support. You will survive this, if you elect to. Nothing else in your lives can ever hurt you as hard as this loss. You will never forget him, you will always cherish him. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you and your families.
