“ I met Sharon the first day of first grade in the cafeteria of North Elementary School. We were waiting on the bus to take us home. I thought her cat eye glasses were a little weird. LOL She shared her crumbled potato chips left from lunch. From that moment on we were inseparable. We were cohorts in stealing her teenage sisters' new ten speeds and riding out the road (sorry Janet and Darlene) We were there for each of our children's births. We loved Saturday at the Ripley Fire Station dancing. We went to the Jackson County fair together. We stayed a week at a time at each others house. There are so many memories that I can't take up the room to post. So many funny stories. Enough to write a book. Some our parents would not believe. But we survived. Thank you for being in my life. Your fiery red curls and smiling green eyes will always be embedded in my mind.

“ The first time I saw Sharon she was the cutest little girl. Her hair was in red curly pony tails. People loved to tease her because she had the cutest temper. We will all miss her very much
