“ What a courageous and amazing Mother you have been. So many memorable journeys we have shared during our years together. Though you will be missed beyond what I can imagine. It gives me great peace and comfort to know that you are no longer in pain and that you are with our Lord and Savior. Til me meet again....

“ Oh how such a loving lady, my Aunt Shelba, will be missed. All the family gatherings for Christmas were held at her beautiful home for as long as I can remember growing up. I always enjoyed those times. Now she's gone home where my dad and uncle Don, her husband and mom and dad are. What a glorious reunion that must be.

“ I broke bread many, many nights at Shelba and Wayne's table. Sometimes in the winter a snow would come on and I am sure she would wonder if I had moved in til the Spring thaw.

At one point when they were remodeling, it put five us kids in one area at night.

How many times did she have to tell, "Be quiet, go to bed!" Now if you knew her and her sweet, soft voice, it wasn't really a yell.

Her voice was angelic. I can still see her coming in from work and immediately starting dinner for the brood. Yes, I was part of that brood.

Thank you Shelba for the years of allowing me to be part of your family, for allowing me to invade your home and most of all, for loving me.

I know the angelic choir just got sweeter this week.

I will see you again some day my dear friend.
