I worked with Sherri many years ago at HIMG we were very good friends during that time. She had a big heart. I remember her always talking about her nieces and nephews, she loved those kids. I am so sorry for your loss. Prayers for all 🙏💔💔

“ I met Sherri at the NWA wrestling matches in the mid 80's as I was the ring announcer for WV. That started a 35 year friendship that I treasure the memories, laughter and other friendships with her friends that sat out on Sunday nights to get those ringside seats for Charleston and Huntington. I took her to an event at Nikita Koloff's gym one Saturday in 1988 in Concord, NC and she was smiling ear to ear talking with Nikita, Lex, Sting and the other wrestlers at the event. Prayers to the family and friends. When you think of Sherri, You gotta Smile! A big Whoooooooooooo! For Sherri! 😊
