

Sherry Webster Moore

March 21, 2014

Sherry Webster Moore, 58, of Saint Albans, was called to be with the Lord on Friday, March 21, 2014 while in her home.

Born on October 8, 1955 in Charleston, she was the daughter of Thelma Jones of Charleston and the late Lowell Webster. She was also preceded in death by her husband James "Jimmy" Moore.

Sherry was a loving, caring person that loved baking, crafts, and gardening. She attended New Hope Baptist Church in St. Albans. She served many families in the area through her work with Shawnee Hills, Putnam Aging, and Loved Ones in home care.

In addition to her mother, Sherry is survived by her children, Jenny Bell of St. Albans, Ronnie Bell of Sterling, VA, and Channing "Tiger" Cutlip of Jefferson; sisters Evie McPherson, Sandra Bess, Tamara Perry; brothers Mike and Chris McGinnis, Kyle Hilbert, and Bill Webster.

Funeral service will be held at 10am Wednesday, March 26, 2014 at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans with Rev. Jimmie McKnight officiating. Burial will follow in Donel C. Kinnard Memorial State Veterans Cemetery, Institute, WV. Visitation will be held from 7-9pm Tuesday at the funeral home.

“ *To all the family and friends of Sherry, my deepest sympathies for you all. Sherry was such a good friend and all of us who knew her knew she had a heart of GOLD. She has touched so many lives during her journey, with those she cared for on her job, her family, and friends. I will never forget her and how she helped my family before my mom passed. I trusted her so much that I ask her to help with my mom. The journey that Sherry and I shared together was beautiful, I know she is walking on streets of gold, hand in hand with Jesus. What a joyful reunion she had with Jimmy and her loved ones. God Bless You All.
Much Love and Prayers
